

Developing the World's Youth: Innovation in Entrepreneurship and Employment

Design Thinking Workshop: February 9, 2017:
L Building: Room L1017 from 9am -10:30am

9:00am - 9:10am	Jennifer Cleary Project Administrator, International Development Institute	Welcome and Introduction of Speaker
9:10am - 10:25am	Sara Hassan Professor, Humber College	Training & Q&A
10:25am - 10:30am	Paige Danychuk IDW Student Committee Volunteer	Thank you and closing

Speakers Biographies

Sara Hassan

Professor, Liberal Studies Department, Humber College.

Currently teaches in the Liberal Studies department at Humber College. Prior to joining Humber, Sara worked at TakingITGlobal (TIG), a non-profit organization dedicated to helping youth make a difference in their world. At TIG, Sara coordinated and facilitated educational programming related to social entrepreneurship, environmental education, and student voice for students and teachers working in the K-12 and postsecondary education sectors.

Sara earned a B.A. in International Development Studies from York University and an M.A. in Globalization Studies from McMaster University. Most recently, she obtained her B.Ed. from the University of Toronto with a focus on aboriginal infusion. Sara has also spent several years working on various international development projects with organizations in Guyana (youth development), Honduras (HIV/AIDS education) and Tanzania (early childhood education).